michele mercaldo

Michele Mercaldo's chic works in gold, silver, and platinum are refreshingly restrained. In her small South End workspace and showroom, the designer hand-creates and -finishes geometric earrings, bracelets, and pendants with a focus on clarity and simplicity. "My lines are very clean and modern," says Mercaldo, who also does custom wedding bands and one-of-a-kind commissions. "I try to work with how things fit the body," she says, turning out items that flatter a neckline or drape just so around a wrist. This season, affordable sterling silver pieces (from $60) take inspiration from architecture: The Circles Series, for example, explores how varying arrangements of the simple O shape can create entirely different pieces of jewelry. Available at Michele Mercaldo Jewelry (280 Shawmut Ave., 617-350-7909, michelemercaldo.com).
